United States v. Raniere, et al.
18 Cr. 204 (S-2) (NGG)

JUROR QUESTIONNAIRE
PRELIMINARY INSTRUCTIONS

Upon your oath or affirmation, you must give true and complete answers to all questions. These questions are not meant to ask unnecessarily about personal matters. Rather, these questions will help the Court determine whether you can be fair and impartial in deciding this case and will also provide information about you as a juror to help the parties select a jury. Remember there are no “right” or “wrong” answers; there are only truthful answers. Part of the selection process depends on your ability and promise to follow the law as it is explained by the Court. Thus, some of the questions include descriptions of legal principles and ask whether you can conscientiously follow them.

THE COURT INSTRUCTS YOU NOT TO DISCUSS THE QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS WITH FELLOW JURORS. IT IS VERY IMPORTANT THAT YOUR ANSWERS BE YOUR OWN INDIVIDUAL ANSWERS. Further, the Court instructs you not to discuss anything about the case with anyone: not the defendant, the lawyers, your fellow jurors, your family, your friends, or anyone else. Please try to write as legibly as possible. It is very important that the answers be yours and yours alone.

Please place an asterisk (*) next to any answers where—to the extent the Court or parties have any follow-up questions—you would want to have the additional discussion in private.

SUMMARY OF THE CHARGES

You are being considered to serve as a juror in a criminal case. Jury selection is scheduled to begin on approximately April 15, 2019, and trial is expected to begin shortly thereafter. Trial is expected to take approximately eight-to-ten weeks once a jury is selected. The defendants are charged in an indictment with criminal offenses. An indictment listing the criminal charges against a defendant is simply the document used to advise a defendant of the accusations against him. The indictment is not evidence.

The law presumes that all of the defendants are innocent. The defendants have pleaded not guilty to all charges in the indictment. It is the government that has the burden of proof under our system of law. The prosecution must come forward with proof beyond a reasonable doubt that a defendant has committed crimes before a defendant can be found guilty. The defendants have no obligation to produce any evidence or do anything else at trial. This is because the law presumes a defendant to be innocent of the charges brought against him.

The following is a summary of the charges in this case. The Indictment in this case charges that the defendants are members of a criminal organization known as the “Enterprise” and that they committed a variety of crimes as part of that criminal enterprise, including racketeering and racketeering conspiracy involving acts of—among other things—identity theft, wire fraud, obstruction of justice, visa fraud, forced labor, sex trafficking, extortion, money laundering, child exploitation and possession of child pornography. Certain defendants are also charged with additional crimes including sex trafficking, sex trafficking conspiracy, attempted sex trafficking, forced labor conspiracy and wire fraud conspiracy,

Remember that under the law an indictment is not evidence, it is merely an accusation, and that a defendant is presumed to be innocent of the charges described in an indictment unless and until the government establishes a defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. If you are selected as a juror in this case, it will be your duty to determine whether, based solely on the evidence presented at trial, the government has proved beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant is guilty of the specific crimes charged.

QUESTIONNAIRE AND JURY SELECTION

As noted, the purpose of this questionnaire is to assist the Court and the parties in selecting a jury of individuals that can be fair and impartial. Because this case has generated media attention, the Court and the parties are taking steps to maintain the privacy of jurors and potential jurors. [The Court has issued an order concealing the names of jurors from anyone other than the parties until after trial in this case.] It is important to ensure that the jury will in no way be influenced by the public, by the members of the media and their articles and reports. The Court is taking these measures to protect your right to privacy and to assist you in discharging your responsibility as a juror fairly and impartially. You will be referred to by your juror number when in open court.

PART I: HARDSHIP (Questions 1 through 3)

Jury selection will begin on April 15, 2019, and the trial is expected to begin on April 29, 2019. We anticipate the trial should last approximately eight-to-ten weeks. Trial will be in session, generally speaking, Monday through Thursday from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. The trial will recess for national and major religious holidays. Jurors will receive a printed schedule of trial dates upon final selection of the jury.

JUROR NO. _____

If you are selected as a juror, you will be required to be present for the taking of testimony for as long as the case lasts. There are no plans to sequester the jury, meaning you will go home every day after court.

The Court views service on a jury in a federal criminal trial to be one of the highest duties a citizen owes to the United States. Mere inconvenience or the usual financial hardships of jury service will not be sufficient to excuse a prospective juror.

PART IV: LEGAL PRINCIPLES
(Questions 72 through 87)

Part IV explains some of the fundamental legal principles on which the Court will give instructions during the trial. If you believe you cannot follow these principles, you are duty bound to let the Court know now.

72. (a) Every defendant is presumed innocent and cannot be convicted unless the jury, unanimously and based solely on the evidence in the case, decides that his guilt has been proven beyond a reasonable doubt. The burden of proving guilt rests entirely with the government. It never shifts to the defendant at any time. The defendant has no burden of proof at all.

Would you have any difficulty following these rules?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

JUROR NO. _____

(b) Will you accept and apply this rule of law?

Yes _____ No _____

(c) Under the law, a defendant need not testify. If a defendant does not testify, the jury may not consider that fact in any way in reaching a decision as to whether a defendant is guilty or not guilty. Would you have any difficulty following this rule of law?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

73. An indictment itself is not evidence. It merely describes the charges made against the defendants. It is an accusation. It may not be considered by you as any evidence of the defendants' guilt. Are you able to follow this rule of law?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

74. Under the law, you must consider each defendant and each alleged crime separately. You must find a defendant not guilty of the alleged crime you are considering, unless the evidence that has been presented in court proves him or her guilty of that crime beyond a reasonable doubt.

Would you have any difficulty following these rules?

Yes _____ No _____

If yes, please explain: _____

JUROR NO. _____

75. Should a defendant decide to testify, that does not shift the burden of proof to the defendant or diminish the obligation of the government to prove the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. The government always carries this burden of proof in a criminal trial. Will you have any difficulty following this rule of law?
